L&S Majors

Over 60 majors available

Complete major requirements in about 30 credits

Your major is not synonymous with your degree

I earned a Bachelor of Mathematics

I earned a Bachelor of Science and majored in Mathematics

Your major is not tied to a particular degree

B.A. in Chemistry or B.S. in English are options!
L&S Majors cont.

Need more information regarding major requirements, how & when to declare or who your department advisors are?

Check out The Guide for major specific information.
L&S Certificates

Certificates allow you to explore other disciplines of interests outside of your major

Most certificates are 12-18 credits (4-6 classes)
You may pursue some certificates outside of L&S

A certificate may not correspond with your major
If pursuing a German major, you cannot pursue a German certificate

Not all majors have a corresponding certificate and likewise, not all certificates have a corresponding major.

For example:
Spanish major--no Spanish certificate
American Indian Studies certificate--no American Indian Studies major
Getting Advising

Until you declare your major, an AAS or CCAS advisor will be your primary advisor. Once you declare, you’ll work with your department advisor(s), but we’re always here to help!

Are you eligible to transfer to L&S?

- Continuing students must have a 2.000 cumulative GPA at UW-Madison and
- A 2.000 in their most recent semester at UW-Madison, including summer term.

First semester on campus: New freshmen (first-year students) and transfer students who do not have an established UW-Madison GPA may request to transfer during their first term on campus.

Dropped Students: A dropped student must be readmitted by the original school or college prior to initiating an L&S transfer.
Ready to transfer to L&S?

Complete the online request form to initiate the transfer process.

*Please allow 5-7 business days for us to process

NOTE: Online request forms are only accepted through the 12th week of the semester. All online requests submitted after that week will be processed at the beginning of the next term. Please plan accordingly.

Please contact your current advisor to notify them of your transfer to L&S. We cannot remove enrollment holds placed by other schools/colleges.
